

Lutz//Keystone-Odessa Community Plan Open House Update

The Hillsborough County City-County Planning Commission invites you to participate in the Open House and comment on the update of the adopted community plans.

The Hillsborough County Board of County Commissioners has directed the Planning Commission to update the Keystone-Odessa and Lutz adopted community plans (Effective January 9, 2001). Planning Commission staff will work with stakeholders and citizens in the development of the plan updates. The involvement of those who live or own a business in the community is vital in charting the future course for the community plan areas. The plan updates will incorporate changes to the adopted plan vision, goals, policies based on a review of the existing plans and what has been completed, what has not been completed and on variable changes in existing conditions.

Please come out to:

- Review the Community Plan
- Add input and Comment
- Help us work toward updating the Community Plan.

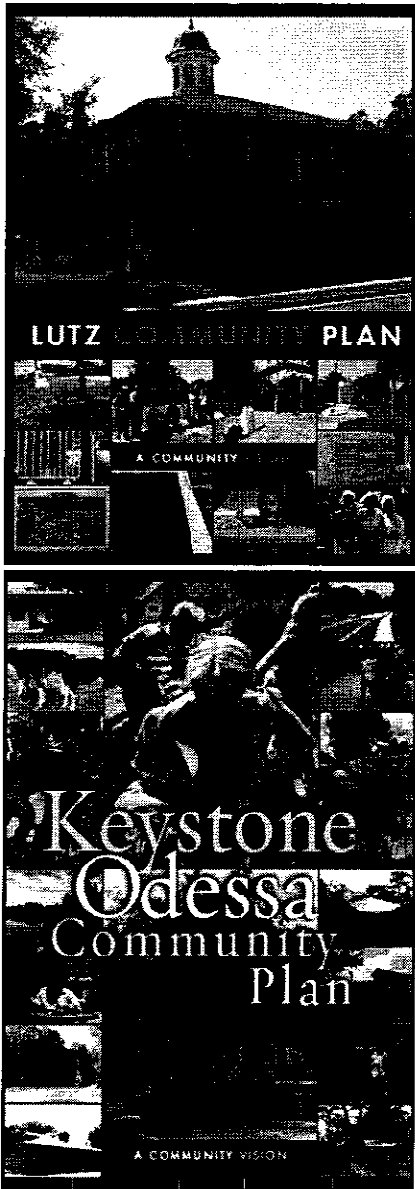

For more information and future updates check the Planning Commission's website at www.theplanningcommission.org select Community Plans then Lutz- Keystone Odessa Community Plan Update.
